

Acceptable Use Policy

Last updated: June 02, 2024

AV CHAMPS is a place that empowers people to share and grow the world's Audio-Visual knowledge. The following policies help everyone on AV CHAMPS have a safe experience:

- Platform Policies
- Spaces Policies

For additional questions, please contact us via contact form. add hyper link to it

No Malicious or Illegal Activity

Do not contribute viruses, malware, and other malicious programs or engage in activity that harms or interferes with the operation of AV CHAMPS or seeks to circumvent security or authentication measures. Do not use AV CHAMPS to engage in unlawful activity.

Reporting Problems

If you see something on AV CHAMPS that you believe violates our guidelines or policies, please report it to us using our contact form. add hyper link to it

Violating the Acceptable Use Policy may result in the removal of content, or in the limitation or termination of a user's access to AV CHAMPS.

Enforcement

AV CHAMPS has the sole authority and final decision as to whether content or behaviour violates these policies. We may enforce these policies in a variety of ways, including, but not limited to written warnings, removal of content, adding warning tags to content, or the limitation or termination of a user's access to AV CHAMPS.

Updates

We also may change these policies from time-to-time by posting an updated version of these policies.